Internal Complaint Committee (ICC)

Guideline for ICC

The ICC shall exercise the following role and perform the following functions, namely-

1. Information regarding ICC activities and committee members are shared with the college fresher during the Orientation Program organized at the beginning of the year to impart knowledge about the Internal Complaint among the girl students regarding physical, mental, verbal or socio-cultural harassments.
2. In case of any hesitation, awareness must be created about the Suggestion Box as an alternative source of complaint submission.
3. The Suggestion Box is accessed by the Trust representative on every Wednesday and the Hon. Chairman of the Trust goes through them all and the sensible ones are shared with the Principal to get them resolved properly with the help of the committee members.
4. To address and resolve students' complaints, opportunities for in-person meetings will be provided to listen to students' concerns for it's in time solution.
5. Through, the College Women's Development Cell, various awareness programs must be organized and relevant experts should be invited to address the Internal Complaints form.
6. To provide counseling to girls during Mentorship program.
7. To prepare Minutes and Action Taken Report of the meeting of ICC.
